LANDING AREAS OF THE
RETURN OF THE ANUNNAKI

2022=בבאב

IMPORTANT NOTE FROM THE PUBLISHERS: In June 2015, Maximilien de Lafayette had an open-heart surgery (4 Bypasses), which shattered his life, but his message of love, compassion, wisdom and enlightenment remains stronger than life itself. This book was written in 1964, but it was completed and revised by an editorial board in July 2015.

Acknowledgment and Gratitude

I am deeply grateful to the Honorable Ulema, Anunnaki-Ulema, Cheiks, Allamah, Gurus, and Asaatiza, who have guided me in this work:

Anunnaki-Ulema, The Right Honorable Cheik Al Baydani
Anunnaki-Ulema Mordachai ben Zvi
Master Sorenztein
Master Shlomo Naphtali
Master Yacob Irza
Anunnaki-Ulema Ayira Kermaat
Cheik Waleed Subhi Al Yamani

Questions and Answers...169

- Q: How did we get the list of the Anunnaki’s landing spots? ...169

- Q: Why so many areas of landing? ...169
- Q: Why not landing in the front of the White House? ...169
- This should send a global message to the entire population of Earth? ...169
- Q: We understand the importance of some landing spots because of their past affiliation with the Anunnaki, such as Eridu and Jabal Haramoon...169
- But Dover, London, and Oerland? ...169
- Do you have any explanation why cities like Dover, London, and Oerland were chosen as possible landing spots?...170
- Q: Do we have any idea about the landing process and scope? Is it some sort of an invasion or simply an unopposed landing?...170
- Q: Is it a regional Bubble or a global Bubble?...170
- Q: Is it similar to the “Rapture” Bubble?...170
- Q: Since Earth is also the habitat of the intraterrestrial Greys, will the Greys oppose or counter-attack the Anunnaki?...170
- Q: Will some of the landing spots be used as portals?...170
- Stargates?...170
- Q: Is there any possibility of avoiding the Bubble?...170
- Q: How can we accomplish that?...170
- Q: If so, why our government is still covering up the whole matter?...170

Are the Anunnaki and/or the aliens returning to Earth (coming back)? In this context, it is extremely important and paramount to differentiate between the Anunnaki and aliens (Extraterrestrials) for numerous reasons we have explained in the book. But mainly for two primordial reasons:

1-The aliens are already here, they never left Earth, and consequently, don't need to come back. They have already established their habitat on planet Earth millions of years ago, and long before Man walked on the surface of the Earth. As a matter of fact, our government is fully aware of this undeniable veracity since it has developed and carried out joint US-Aliens' secret operations and research programs with at least two alien species since 1947 at military bases and underground facilities on the American soil.

2-The subject of the Anunnaki's return is known only to a few military scientists, an intellectual-ecclesiastic elite, and top echelon at the Pentagon, and it is rarely discussed inside or outside the Top Secret and Above Top Secret military perimeters.

Nevertheless, it remains a sensitive and a very critical concern which has never left the "Foggy Room", a secret code, or appellation for "Center of Study and Operations Room of Extraterrestrials' Affairs", created in September 1947, and which our government has strongly denied its existence ever since.

A well-informed insider told me, "We can deal with the Anunnaki, they are our parents and ancestors. The problem is the other nasty kind...the little creepy insects...the Zetas and the intraterrestrials..."

To many, including military scientists, the question of the Anunnaki is of a philosophical-mythological nature; "they belong in the ancient folklore "catacombs", and cuneiform literature" commented a Smithsonian Institution-Harvard's scholar. I strongly disagree with the learned professor.

So what is the bottom line here?
Are they coming back or not?
And who is coming back?

Well, since the "little creepy insects" never left Earth, who are we talking about?

Newcomers from Zeta Reticuli?

Multi-dimensional beings?

Aliens from our future?

The Nordics?

Beings of Light from Aldebaran?

Friends of the Ancient Aliens History Channel TV Show producers and presenters from Nibiru? Yah Right!!!

Or simply the Anunnaki of ancient Mesopotamia and the Giant Gods (Rephaim, Nephilim, Elohim) who descended on Mount Hermon in Phoenicia, according to the Bible?

This is the delicate and controversial subject we will address and explore in this essay.

And in case, the return of extraterrestrials is considered by our government as a threat to humanity, are we ready to confront them and defend Earth?

Perhaps our government is not concerned at all?

Then what? And why the big fuss?

Well, let's hear the "story" of the Anunnaki Ulema, and read (As much as possible) their "Tanabiyaat" (Predictions) from the Book of Ramadosh, and visit what they called "The landing spots" of the return of the Anunnaki in 2022.

And how accurate and reliable are these predictions?

You will be the judge!

Zamani-Anuka:

Zamani-Anuka is an Ulemite term referring to the Anunnaki status quo.

So, where are the Anunnaki now?

The Anunnaki now are where they came from; their own planet, called Ashtari.

The Anunnaki are part of the Cosmic Federation of the Seven Galaxies.

This is not the so-called federation of light or cosmic order as claimed by new age ufology.

What is so special about the Anunnaki's federation is the different types of alien civilizations and galactic races that have joined, meaning different bio-organic entities which are totally different from human-like entities, physically, organically, emotionally and mentally.

Why don't they communicate with us anymore?

This is a question I have been asked many times. And my answer is this: Humans have very little to offer to more advanced galactic civilizations.

In reality, the human race has nothing meaningful to offer to the Anunnaki.

We are limited in our thoughts, despite the variety and divergence of our philosophical thoughts, inventions, art, the music we compose, the poetry we write, the magnificent figurines we mold.

On a cosmic level, all these beauties produced by mankind are very minimal. In the very early days of humanity's history, the Anunnaki were deeply involved in humans' affairs, and we know this from reading the Akkadian-Sumerian-Assyrian clay tablets, the Babylonian-Mesopotamian literature as preserved in the legendary library (More than 30,000 tablets) of Assurbanipal in Nineveh, the Phoenician Cosmogony, the Book of Ramadosh, etc.

However, the Anunnaki lost interest in us, for many reasons, to name a few:

1-Anunnaki's mission-expedition-exploration on planet "Ki", "Ardi" (Earth) were accomplished, hundreds of thousands of years ago.

2-The Anunnaki had to return home to take care of their own business. However, they left an offspring on Earth, in areas and regions like Turkey, Phoenicia, Sumer, Guatemala, Peru, Mexico, Persia, and Syria.

Their offspring appeared in history's chronologies as legendary kings and queens, and in some case as obscure historical figures like Danel "Danael", "Dnil", a Phoenician-Ugaritic king who was mentioned in the Ras Shamra Texts.

The Anunnaki's offspring had hard time dealing with humans, because of their greed, violence, betrayals, wars, and their lack of loyalty.

In fact, many of the Anunnaki's remnants on Earth were murdered by humans.

If you read ancient history books, you will find out that one civilization has wiped out other civilizations by invading their territories and butchering their leaders, and these atrocious acts continue to the present day.

It is quite ironic, we call the Macedonian Alexander "Alexander the Great"; a man who killed thousands of people (families, women, children, elderly) and destroyed some of the greatest civilizations in history.

Equally ironic and shameful when we depict the Crusaders as the "Saviors of the Faith", while in reality, they were murderers and butchers.

Upon capturing the city of Jerusalem, the Crusaders slaughtered every Muslim infant, woman and man, and wiped out families and communities. And they did it by the name of Jesus, the Pope and Christianity.

Same thing happened once again, when the Christian Catholic Conquistadors decimated the Maya, Inca and Aztec civilizations; and when the so-called "Pioneers of the West" annihilated the Native Americans.

And today, history repeats itself with holy Jihad and superpowers' materialistic and military expansionism.

he Anunnaki have witnessed all these atrocities.

TEven the notorious “Greys” felt threatened by the human race, its nuclear arsenal, and what we are constantly doing to Earth’s ecology system/environment.

Earth is not a positive and healthy environment or habitat for the Anunnaki, and/or for any highly advanced galactic civilization.

Sure, the human race produced outstanding people like Madame Curie, Gandhi, Mother Theresa, Salah Al Dinn Al Ayoubi, Victor Hugo, Marco Polo, Lamartine, Mary-Magdalena, Buddha Siddhartha, Sophocles, and Chopin, but these wonderful people are a drop in the bucket.

The truth I tell you, if you don’t find the pleasure in the pleasure of giving, and if you don’t forgive others, not only once, but as much as it takes, maybe fifty times or more if necessary, and as long as our success and respectability on Earth are measured by the weight of our wealth, fame and power, none of the highly advanced communities in the cosmos will find the human race, appealing, meaningful and worth any attention.

However, the Anunnaki did not leave us completely. Thanks to the “Conduit” they have installed in the cells of our brains, they remain in constant touch with us, but only the pure in heart and thoughts will feel it and benefit from it.

Perhaps for this reason they are coming back?

Or Perhaps to “Clean House”?

CHAPTER ONE
Reference to the return of the Anunnaki.

Chapter One

Reference to the return of the Anunnaki.

The Sumerian, Akkadian, and Assyrian (Mesopotamian) cuneiform clay tablets did not mention at all the return of the Anunnaki, the gods of Earth (Anunna means Gods in Sumero-Akkadian. Ki means Earth in Sumerian, Babylonian and Akkadian, as well as death, underground, and hell, also called “Kurnugi” in Sumerian, Akkadian, and Old Babylonian.)

But five manuscripts did mention the return of the Anunnaki:

1- “Ilmu Al-Donia Scrolls or Kitab” (Book of Science of the World, written in Arabic and Turkish).

2- “Ramadosh Kitbu” (The Book of Ramadosh, written in Ulemite-Ana’kh).

3- “Anamidra Scroll or Kitbu” (The Book of Anamidra written in Old Babylonian cuneiform, and Ulemite/Ana’kh).

The Anunnaki Ulema are the sole custodians of these three archaic manuscripts and scrolls. These rare and precious scrolls were written in four languages:

- a-Old Babylonian.
- b-Pre-Islamic Arabic, in the “Jahiliya” style.
- c-Ana’kh, which is an Ulemite language.
- d-Turkish (Ancient Turkish-Ottoman script).

4- “Anunnaki Matrix “Al Anaaki Nizamu” (Written in Ulemite/Ana’kh).

The Anunnaki’s Matrix is extremely complicated, because it is written in codes, symbols, geometrical forms, chemical formulas, theorems. In other words, it is a cosmic library, archives, and depository of all the knowledge and events of five billion years, the estimated date of the beginning of Earth.

In addition, the Matrix describes in detail the return of the Anunnaki in 2022, and refers to the landing areas (Spots, places, countries) of their return to Planet Earth.

Equally important are the references made to the creation of MAN from clay by Annaki goddesses in various poems and texts found in Nineveh’s library in ancient Iraq, as well as the reason for creating the human race in Mesopotamia and Phoenicia.

Without learning about and understanding of the Anunnaki's reason for creating the human race (Bashar), it would be impossible for us to fully comprehend why such an advanced galactic civilization is still interested in us, and plan to return to Planet Earth.

Thus, I have included in this book pertinent passages from the Mesopotamian clay tablets originally written in cuneiform style of writing, and provided you with accurate and academic translation of said texts.

5- Madame Blavatsky's work:

According to Madame Blavatsky, the Anunnaki will return to Benares in India at the end of the third cycle of the evolution of Man.

6- Nicolas Flamel's personal papers:

Nicolas Flamel (1330-1418?) was a famous alchemist and an Anunnaki Ulema. It is thought that he was born in Pontoise, but spent most of his life in Paris, where he started his business in a stall for selling his manuscripts.

His business prospered, and eventually he bought a house and used the in Rue de Marivaux, using the ground floor for his business. Nicolas Flamel hired other scribes, copyists, and illuminators, and gave writing lessons to the members of the noble families who wished to learn.

Madame Blavatsky with Kuthumi, El Myora, and Anunnaki-Ulema Saint Germain. Image supposedly taken in the late 1800's.

Years after his death, his totally unknown expose on “Beings of Lights” (Anunnaki) was discovered in Marseille, France. In his essay, Flamel wrote about the celestial gods (Gods) who created the “First Man” and the alchemy work carried by the Phoenicians in ancient Phoenicia and Syria.

Flamel was a great alchemist and a believer in the return of the Anunnaki, however, he was more known as “The Master of Minerals” than an Anunnaki Ulema.

It was not so much the transmutation of metals into gold that interested him, even though that would be good too, but the idea of discovering the secrets of nature, of immortality, of wisdom, that appealed to him. He heard that the secrets were written down in a book, somewhere, and he kept his eyes open to any mysterious manuscript that came his way. And one day a poor man who obviously needed money sold him a slender little book, bound with an old copper cover with some interesting engraving. The leaves were made of old parchment, on which the writing was clearly done.

It had only twenty-one pages, divided into three part, each separated by a blank page, all edged with gold. He could only understand some of the words, but many were written in a language he had never seen. The first page was clear – the book was written by one Abraham the Jew, who was a prince of his people, a Levite (priest, or servant at the Temple), astrologer, and philosopher.

One word that kept showing again and again throughout the strange language was maranatha.

A rare word that only appears once in the Bible, in Aramaic. By itself, without the Scripture’s addition of the word anathema, it means “Our Lord is coming.” What did it mean here?

In a short paragraph, we learn about other “Gods” who created Man and who will return to Earth for a final judgment.

Are we here referring to the Return of the Anunnaki?

You will be the judge.

“Our Lord is coming.” What did it mean?

It may have been a warning against, or an invitation to read.

He needed an interpreter, and he realized that he would not find one in Paris, where at the time, Jews were not welcome.

He had to go to Spain, where he could find many Jewish scholars. Legend has it that Flamel also found a scroll which contains texts in Ana'kh referring to the Return of the "Beings of Lights" (Anunnaki) to Phoenicia, Syria, and part of Anatolia.

Home of Nicolas Flamel, transformed into an auberge (Inn).

Travel was dangerous and risky, and the purpose of his journey was not one he could discuss with anyone, so he made it clear to everyone that he was making a pilgrimage. He put on a pilgrim's attire, for it afforded some protection in Christian countries, and so as not to endanger the precious book, he left it home under Pernelle's care, taking with him only a few copied pages.

He set off to Galicia, Spain, where he fulfilled his pilgrimage duties, and then started to wander around Spain, looking for a Jewish translator who could read Ana'kh.

He found none. Jews were afraid of a Christian with such a strange request, suspicious that he was bringing trouble with the authorities. And he could not stay for too long, he had a business to attend to and did not like to leave Pernelle alone for too long.

On his way home his luck changed, and through a French acquaintance he met at an inn, he was introduced to a Jewish Anunnaki Ulema interpreter; some say his name was Maestro Canches, but that is not certain.

The man knew about the mysterious book "Ilmu Al Donia", and Ana'kh, and had heard much about Abraham the Jew. Not only did he translate the pages that Flamel brought with him, he volunteered to go back with him to Paris and translate the rest.

They set out, but the translator's feeble health and old age caught up with him and he died on the way, possibly in Orleans, though it has not been established. But during the time they spent together, Flamel learned a lot from the old man, and was now ready to embark on the serious business of deciphering the rest of the Ana'kh book by himself.

It took three years, but he did it, and was able to learn about the date of the return of the Anunnaki, and the landing areas of their return. On his own, he spent his last years translating Ana'kh texts, and writing books on alchemy. It is said that he died in 1418, and some said he wanted to die so he could join his beloved Pernelle.

But is also possible that he did not die at that point. Worth mentioning here that Flamel designed his own tombstone. It is said that a grave robber, who had known about the alchemical activities, decided to rob the grave, but to his amazement, did not find any gold – or for that matter, a body. The grave was empty. This gave credence to the idea of his alleged immortality due to the philosopher's stone.

The great debate about his immortality started during the reign of Louis the XIV. Some Ulema have claimed that Flamel's longevity or "immortality" was "produced by the use of the Anunnaki Ulema Maharit" which was found in Arwad, Amrit, and Ugarit.

The king sent Paul Lucas, an archaeologist, to bring inscriptions and documents for a newly scientific project the King was attempting.

Nicolas Flamel

Flamel's tomb stone.

Unfortunately, Lucas was robbed by pirates, lost all his findings, and the only remains of his trip was a story which he had published in 1719. Apparently, he met a Turkish philosopher, who seemed ageless and highly intelligent. The two scholars became fast friends, and Lucas found out that his Turkish friend was a member of a group of philosophers who considered themselves citizens of the world, and traveled everywhere in search of knowledge.

They met every twenty years in a pre-designated place. These people attained extreme old age, having learned that a man can live a thousand years at least if he had knowledge of the Philosopher's Stone.

The stone gave them much more important benefit than the mere transmutation of metals – it gave them the Elixir of Life. Lucas was told by his friend that Flamel was one of them, and that he had learned his secrets from the Book of Abraham the Jew. He had discovered the Elixir of Life's preparation method, had given it to Pernelle, and faked her funeral.

Later he faked his own death. Together, they went to live in India, to join a group of adepts. Another story, told by the Abbe Vilain, says that in the seventeenth century Flamel himself visited a noted French ambassador, Monsieur Desalleurs.

In addition, years after his death, books were published in his name, but that proves nothing because of course they could be a fake, but his legacy remains and he retained his interesting reputation enough to have himself mentioned throughout the centuries by such important peoples as Victor Hugo and Eric Satie.

Even modern books such as the Harry Potter and The Da Vinci Code mention him. —From the book "Anunnaki Who's Who", co-authored by M. de Lafayette and Dr. I. Anbel.

The Pentagon and our government discussed the return of the Anunnaki.

The “possible” return of any extraterrestrial beings/entities was mentioned numerous times at the Pentagon, and the United States Air Force, and during special meetings to discuss an “Alien Protocol”, and “Earth’s Defense System” against possible alien invasion.

In modern times, the return of the Anunnaki and/or other extraterrestrial species was mentioned in:

1-Aliens Transcripts:

In the Aliens Transcripts of 1947 and 1948.

Note: Please refer to my books “Transcripts of What the Aliens, Extraterrestrials and Intraterrestrials Told our Governments, Vol.1” and “Transcripts of Our Governments-Aliens/Extraterrestrials Meetings in 1948-1949, Vol.2”

2-Anunnaki’s envoy meeting with United States officials in Washington, DC.

A non-terrestrial envoy met with representatives from the CIA, NSA, and the Pentagon at the Four Seasons Hotel in Georgetown, Washington, D.C.

Note: Please refer to my book “Anunnaki Ultimatum.” Here is a synopsis of the meeting taken verbatim from Anati’s account: “I went to a hotel in New York. I had with me a special device, an ingenious thing that had on it the special telephone numbers of top members of the National Security Agency, or NSA as everyone refers to them. Only two or three people in the world have these numbers, not even the president of the United States has access to them.

They are used only for matters related to extraterrestrial reverse engineering. The device makes sure the phones will be promptly answered, and when I called, I gave them data that they recognized as their own extraterrestrial material.

They were shocked, but nevertheless they agree to meet with me. I suppose they realized they had no choice.

Rather politely, they offered to fly me to Washington DC, where they wanted to have the meeting, but I informed them that it was not necessary. It was easy for me to simply materialize in DC, and I did not want them to know my current address, if this could be prevented. They directed me to come to the Four Seasons hotel in Georgetown, where they were to meet me at the lobby. I was instructed to say, if questioned at the hotel, that I was heading for the suite that was reserved under the name of a Middle Eastern gentleman who owned a limousine service in DC, and had often used the hotel for similar purposes.

I materialized a little distance away from the hotel, and walked there on M Street. Three members of the NSA were waiting for me, and they took me to the reserved suite, where fifteen more people were sitting around a huge table. They rose and greeted me politely, but I could clearly see the suspicion in their eyes and in their thoughts.

I noticed that the shades of all the windows were closed, and I saw no telephones. However, they all had gadgets in their hands which I recognized immediately.

They were navigation devices, which at the time were known only to extraterrestrials, not to any human.

For a moment I assumed that they got it from the Greys, for communication purposes, and then noticed that quite a few of these people were really Greys who had shape-shifted to resemble humans.

I can easily identify them, because even while shape-shifting, the Greys cannot turn their heads independently of their body. They have to turn the entire body if they wish to look to the sides. As they turn, their eyes cannot follow their heads quickly, like humans' eyes, but they have to refocus.

All that is done rather discretely, but after living with the Hybrids and the Greys, I could not miss that.

In addition, humans usually fidget, move around. The Greys never do. When seated, they sit quietly, immobile.

When standing, they are straight and immobile as well. In addition to that, I had more instructions from Ashtari as to how to recognize all shape-shifters, which I cannot explain because it involves using the Conduit.

One of the Greys at the end of the table was tapping nervously on the edge of the table with something that looked like a pen, and from time to time pointed it towards me. I recognized this gadget as a scanning device, such as we use on Ashtari. It was not held by any of the humans, because this fiber/scanning device was not known to the humans' scientific community until much later, 2006 or 2007. I supposed the Greys kept it to themselves for a while.

I did my best to ignore the fact that half the people there were Greys, and proceeded as if I had no idea and was talking only to humans.

I had nothing to fear, really, since I could annihilate the Greys with one thought, and I decided that discretion was the best approach.

The Greys maintained their pretence throughout the meeting, and I said nothing at all. Come to think of it, I was used to the treachery of the Greys, but I have to admit I was a little distressed by the humans' duplicity and stupidity. Did they really think I won't recognize the Greys?

I explained to them who I was, telling the absolute truth, and giving my name as Ambar Anati.

Naturally they did not believe me. To help persuade them, I first of all projected certain images on one of the walls.

These were holographic pictures that showed them the entire sequence of the Roswell crash, where the Grey was held, and data pertaining to their research.

They still were not persuaded that I was who I claimed to be, but the fact that the projections were done without any equipment made them uneasy and less sure of themselves. They were at least ready to listen.

I told them quite a lot about the Greys and their agenda. "By now," I said, "you must be aware that they do not tell the truth, that they are not to be trusted."

"Business is business," said one of them.

"They have given us more than they promised, too, so we have gained additional knowledge. It's not really a big deal if they abduct a few more people."

"First of all, it is not a few people. Thousands are tortured and killed."

"What can we say?" answered another. "Sometimes harsh measures cannot be avoided."

I did my best to hide my disgust about such a statement, and went on.

"Are you aware of the fact that they are trying to take over Earth?"

"No, we were not informed about such intent," said another.

"And are you aware of the invisible radio plasmic belt around Earth? They want to isolate Earth from the universe. This belt can expand up or down, and can affect missiles, rockets, or airplanes, and blow them up. It explains what has happened to various airplanes in Vietnam, and also to human spacecrafts and space missions."

"We don't understand what you want us to do," said one of them.

"I want you to trust the Anunnaki. They intend to help you get rid of the Greys. This is really very simple. Either you go with the Anunnaki, in which case much can be done, or you stay with the Greys. If you choose to stay with the Greys, the Anunnaki will return and clean up the Earth, in a way that you will not like. They are perfectly capable of annihilating the entire population if the atrocities do not stop.”

“Are you threatening us?” asked one of them. The rest stared at me, impassive. “I would not call it a threat,” I said. “I would call it a fair warning. Remember, the Anunnaki are stronger than both humans and Greys. They did not have to send me, they could do what they wanted without warning. But they prefer to save as many humans as possible.”

“How do we know how strong the Anunnaki really are?” said one of them. “After all, they have been away for so long. They don’t seem to have much interest in us.”

“Let me show you a small example of what the Anunnaki can do,” I said. In a blink, I multiplied myself into thirty Victorias; we arranged ourselves around the table, behind the sitting people. They jumped off their seats, shocked.

“It’s a trick,” cried some of them. “Grab her!”

“Please, do grab,” I said. “Touch all thirty of me, and see that this is not an idle trick. We can become billions, if we wish.” Hesitantly, they touched some of the multiples.

A few multiples offered to shake hands, which the humans did, trembling. They could not deny the multiple’s tangible presence.

I contracted myself into one person again, and sat down. “Please,” I said. “I have no desire to frighten you. Sit down and let’s be reasonable.”

“Truth is, Ms. Anati,” said one of them, “The Greys are an immediate threat. They are right here and we cannot control them. The Anunnaki are far away. But still, we can see that you wish to help us, and it should be considered. What would you want us to do?”

“I want to start by going into some of the more important places where humans and Greys interact,” I said. “I need much data to deliver to the High Council of Ashtari-Al Debaran and receive instructions before I meet the President of the United States, among others.”

“I think the best thing to do is to go to Dulce, in New Mexico. It is the most important joint laboratory of the Greys and the U.S. Government,” said one of them. The others nodded in agreement. “There are bases in Nevada, Arizona, and Colorado, among others, but Dulce is the most important.”

“Very well. Would you assign one of the members to come with me, act as my escort?” I asked.

“Yes, Colonel X— will go with you.” The colonel rose. He seemed to be a respectable, middle-aged man. In reality, he was certainly a Grey. As before, I pretended not to notice.

“Would you like me to materialize you there?” I asked.

“No, I think it’s best if we go in a more traditional way,” said the colonel. “We don’t want to startle the people in Dulce too much. It’s best if they don’t panic.” I agreed and we decided to go the next day, in a military plane.

On the plane, the colonel, who had become reasonably friendly, gave me some information about Dulce.

“It’s all underground, you know” he said. “People know about seven layers, but in truth, there are nine I am aware of, perhaps more I don’t even know about. It’s really a very large compound.”

“Where exactly is it?” I asked.

“It lies under Archuleta Mesa on the Jicarilla Apache Indian Reservation, near the town of Dulce. Very easy to keep it a secret, the way it is constructed,” he said. “And they are very careful about security. You will see.”

We finally landed at the small air field.

A medium sized building, guarded and surrounded with a high wire fence, stood in the desert.

We entered a normal room. I noticed the cameras in the entrance, and a woman in military uniform looked at some papers Colonel Jones presented to her, but the security was not impressive.

I realized later that the deeper you went into the compound, the stricter was the security. She pressed a button, and a man came to escort us through a door that led to an escalator. From then on, it seemed we were descending into Hell.

Everything was clean, shiny, and metallic, much like I remembered from my unpleasant stay with the Hybrids. No matter where you looked, you saw a security camera. There were side doors everywhere. Apparently, many secret exits and entrances existed, and each was loaded with security features, some visible, others hidden.

On the first level we were joined by a Grey. He was polite and distant, and showed us into various offices without much comment. The offices were normal, military, and stark. Maps hung on walls, with many pushpins in various colors stuck into them. The individual colors, the Grey explained, showed sites of high activity of different subjects. Green, for example, showed sites of heavy spaceship activities, including those of extraterrestrials that were not Greys, and were considered enemies by them.

Red were for areas of cattle mutilation and collection of animal blood. Blue indicated underground activities and caverns. I do not remember all the other colors and sites, but the arrangement was quite elaborate.

The offices were monitored constantly by humans, who wore military-like jumpsuits. Each carried a gun, quite visibly. All the uniforms were decorated with the symbol of the Triangle, much like the Phoenician symbol.

They had various letters in each triangle, supposedly signifying rank, but I never found out if this was true. When they saw that we were accompanied by the Grey, they simply ignored us.

The second level was exactly the same, full of offices, but after the first level, which we reached by the escalator, we used only elevators. I was told that the elevators had no cables in them, and were controlled magnetically, using extraterrestrial technology.

Magnetism also supplied light, which came from flat, circular objects, and there were no regular light bulbs in sight.

The third level was devoted to hospital-like environment, used for impregnation of female humans. I was not allowed into the surgical ward itself, but the Grey explained that the experimenters removed the foetus, and placed it for speeded-up growth in an incubator, creating Hybrids.

In this facility, more than in the one I visited during my previous time with the hybrids, they tended to experiment with genetic manipulation during the very early time in the incubator.

The results were quite monstrous sometimes.

Through windows in the walls, I saw cribs, or really a sort of cages, with some of the results. Deformed humans were the norm – extra arms and legs, small or very large heads, and creatures that did not really look humans. “What do you do with these?” I asked.

“We harvest certain tissues and then kill them,” said the Grey. “We learn quite a lot from them about genetics. We apply them for further research.”

On level four, there were genetic labs that created half human/ half animals. Their shapes, as I saw them sitting in their cages, were so horrific, that I had to avert my eyes. Some of them had a reptilian look, some had fur, and others looked like gargoyles. “Do you harvest tissues here too?” I asked.

“Yes, we combine this research with the materials we get from the cows. The research is extremely interesting and useful,” said the Grey.

The extraterrestrials had their living quarters on levels five, six, and seven. These looked much like military barracks, as we passed the corridors and peeked into the rooms, but I saw no reason to enter.

I asked the Grey if it was true that there were additional levels. This did not seem to phase him at all, and he said, in his perfect English that seemed so unpleasant, coupled with his scratchy alien voice, that yes, of course.

Apparently, they took advantage of the huge natural caverns under Dulce, and created additional levels.

They carried even more security there, and the Grey said that if we wanted to go there, he would have to call two more Greys to accompany us, and we would need to use an eye identification system.

These details were quickly accomplished, and we used a side elevator to the eighth level.

Here they experimented with manipulation of the nervous system by various means. It allowed them to cause disease and even death from a distance.

“I am afraid you cannot enter the place where the subjects are kept,” said the Grey. “These subjects are mostly insane, dangerous, and very susceptible to changes in their routine. If we enter, we might destroy some of the experiments.”

Level nine, where we were invited to enter, contained storage of fully grown creatures and tissues in vats, all dead. This included tanks full of embryos in various stages of development, waiting to be used. The place was kept as clean as the rest of the compound, but the smell of the chemicals was overwhelming. I simply could not stay there long, and Colonel Jones, who until that time showed no emotion, suddenly shape-shifted and appeared in his real, Grey form.

“You knew all along” he said, his voice turning scratchy. “I never thought we could trick you, and would have preferred to appear in my true form in the first place, but my group insisted.”

“It does not signify,” I said. “Of course I knew.” The other Grey did not pay much attention to the shifting, being used to such practices.

Level ten, the most secret of them all, was devoted to human aura research, and other extra sensory abilities, including dreams, hypnosis, etc. The researchers were able to record dreams on specialized machines; the dreams were studied as part of the major advanced study of psychic power and phenomena.

“Once we are more advanced in this research,” said the Grey, “we will have total power over other races. Of course, we mean no harm to humans nor to the Anunnaki.

We are merely concerned with the Reptilian races.” I almost laughed. No harm to humans? Was the Grey trying to be a PR person?

When we finished our tour, we were escorted out of the complex. The plane waited for us outside. I said nothing about my disgust, horror, and disbelief to anyone. But I have seen enough, and I knew that this was just the tip of the iceberg. Such treaties must have been entered into by more than the United States government. The Greys have reached almost total control over humanity.

After materializing myself back in New York, I knew I will always be watched, but I also knew how to handle it and avoid my watchers. I needed time. First, I spent a few days just digesting what I saw. I made myself invisible, and left the hotel for hours of exploration.

I walked the streets, took the subway, went on buses, visited museums, stores, offices, hospitals, senior citizens homes, schools, and more. Everywhere I went I saw Greys in shape-shifted form.

Obviously, they did not only infiltrate the military, but spread out much more. They flooded the city. Some worked in offices, some in restaurants, obviously doing it as part of their agenda. They were nurses, teachers, officials, sanitation engineers.

They were probably doing the same in other cities, urban areas, towns, and even other countries.

For me, as I mentioned before, it is easy to recognize a shape-shifter. I was taught how to do it by the best teachers on Ashtari. But a human cannot do so very easily.

Your doctor could be a Grey. The nice lady in the department store could be one. The teacher of your young child could be one. In addition, I saw many hybrids. Vicious, unfeeling, and manipulative, they flocked mostly into the entertainment industry, the financial world, and the advertising field. It seemed they liked glamour. The Greys and their slaves, the Hybrids, have invaded the world.

After a few days I got to work. Using the same device that had gotten me the telephone numbers of the NSA members, I spent my time contacting and negotiating with hundreds of people from a number of governments on earth. I also visited other laboratories, bases, and Air Force fields.

Each time I negotiated, I encountered the same road blocks. Every government on earth was in terror of the Greys. The Anunnaki were feared, too, and the knowledge that they will very likely attempt to clean the earth, terrified the humans, but not enough to get them out of their fearful paralysis regarding the Greys.

But that was not the worst. Unbelievably, many individuals in power simply did not care. All they wanted was to keep their power, to control, to wage war. They wanted to make billions and keep it within a tiny group of the financial elite, while the rest of the world was permitted to go to the devil.

This was a long mission.

For years I went from country to country, getting in touch with the people in power, acquiring knowledge, collecting data and transferring it, every night, to Ashtari.

The High Council took it all very calmly, and when I despaired, reminded me that my services were invaluable despite the seemingly unachievable goal of converting humanity...”

4-At a historic meeting with aliens in 1954. (Eisenhower’s meeting with aliens):

In February 1954, President Dwight Eisenhower went for a week’s vacation to Palm Springs, California. This was a little strange, and many did not quite understand the timing, because he just came back from a quail shooting vacation in Georgia. Actually, it was less than a week before his trip to Palm Springs.

Taking two vacations in a row was not his style, but nevertheless he did go, and arranged to stay there for a week. Now, a president, as you know, is always surrounded by other officials, not to mention body guards; he is never out of sight.

But on the night of February 20, the President of the United States disappeared. The press, which somehow was alerted despite all the efforts for secrecy, spread rumors that he was ill, or that he suddenly died. The president’s people were alarmed, so they called an emergency press conference, and announced that Eisenhower lost a tooth cap at his dinner, and had to be rushed to a dentist.

To make it more believable, the dentist was presented to the people. He was invited to a function the next evening, and was introduced all around.

This, again, was strange. Why would a dentist be invited to such an affair, and why would the President’s personnel take such care to make him visible to everyone?

I imagine it must have been a cover-up for the President's real business?

It was. Eisenhower was actually taken to Muroc Airfield, which later was renamed Edwards Air Force Base. There, he met with Greys. No president had ever done so before. The delegation of the extraterrestrials consisted of eleven Greys. Six from Zeta Reticuli, and five from earth's underwater bases. And this was not the last meeting.

This marked the beginning of negotiations between the government of United States and the Greys. The situation was no longer only in the hands of the military, but went much further.

And how was this meeting arranged, in the first place?

Well, it started a year before the meetings.

In 1953, astronomers discovered some large objects that at first were believed to be asteroids, and later proven to be spaceships. They were very large, but since they took a high orbit around the equator, they were not visible to laymen. Two projects were installed – Project Sigma, created to interpret the Greys' radio communications, and Project Plato, created to establish diplomatic relationships with the extraterrestrials.

There were talks about other races that contacted the humans at that time, arguments regarding who the treaties should be signed with, and so on. As a matter of fact, the Nordics, a benevolent race, tried to prevent the humans from accepting these evil treaties, and wanted them to dismantle their nuclear weapons and abandon their road to self-destruction, but they were not listened to.

The Nordics wanted the humans to go on a path of spiritual growth, but what the humans wanted was military secrets.

And the treaty with the Greys was signed. It basically said that the Greys and the humans will not interfere with each other's affairs. The humans will keep their presence a secret, and they will be allowed to experiment on cows and on a limited number of human abductees. The abductees' names would be reported to the U.S. government for control, they were not to be harmed, and they should be returned to their homes after the memory of the events was erased.

But, as we know, they did not keep the promise, and extended their experiments without telling the United States government.

They could not be trusted. But let's face it, the humans were treacherous as well. For example, there was the issue of the Grey that had arranged all that.

He came back with the delegation of 1954, and agreed to stay on Earth as a hostage of good will, on condition that he would be allowed freedom to go back and forth to recharge himself.

This lasted for a year, but soon enough the Americans, having learned a little about the vicious plans of the Greys and the excessive number of abductions that was not agreed upon, turned back on their word to the hostage and locked him up for three years.

As a result, he developed extreme claustrophobia that eventually killed him. They won't let him recharge himself."

Before expiring, the alien told us that her people (The alien was a female-hybrid) were not interested in us. However, the intraterrestrials who live here on Earth are, simply because Earth is their habitat; in other words, their planet!

CHAPTER TWO
WHY THE ANUNNAKI ARE STILL INTERESTED IN US?

CHAPTER TWO

Why the Anunnaki are still interested in us?

Because we are still part of the Anunnaki-Man Equation “An-Hayya’h”:

An-Hayya’h is our umbilical cord.

An-Hayya’h is our umbilical cord, our birth cord that attaches us to the Anunnaki.

Some refer to it as the “Silver Chord”.

No matter how silly and crazy this concept might look to many of us, one day, we will accept and possibly we might understand its mind-boggling mysteries, when our science, technology and mind explore wider dimensions, and reach a higher level of cosmic awareness and intelligence, added the Ulema.

Farid Tayarah said: “An-Hayya’h will always be there for you to use before you depart this Earth. It will never go away, because it is part of you. Without it you couldn’t exist.

Just before you die, your brain out of the blue wills activate it for you.”

So, let’s go back in time and read DIRECTLY the Sumerian-Akkadian-Assyrian texts about the creation of MAN by the Anunnaki.

*** *** ***

Creation of the “First Man”:

Ninlil the Sumerian “Queen Breeze”, who was also called Aruru, Ninhursag, Ninhursanga, the Lady of The Mountains, the ruler of the heavens, underworld, wind, earth, and grain, wife of Enlil and the mother of Nanna/Utu experimented with different forms and shapes of early human beings. Ninlil also created Endiku.

In the Epic of Gilgamesh we read:

“...she created mankind...

so numerous...

she thrust her hands into the waters and pinched off some clay,

which she dropped in the wilderness,

where she made Endiku the hero...”

And in another passage, it was written:

*"My friend Endiku whom I loved has turned into clay...
he died...and returned to the clay that fashioned him..."*

Ninhursag/Ninlil/Nama.

Ninhursag, quite often referred to as Ninlil, is shown here as the goddess of irrigation. 18th Century B.C.,

In several passages from the Akkadian-Sumerian clay tablets, she was also associated with Nanna, who was called the “Creator of Modern Man”, and the “Earth Mother Goddess.”

The creation of the human race, and Why Man Was Created.

Goddess Nammu:

The Sumerian-Anunnaki goddess Nammu/“Namma” and her son Enki created multiple forms of humans, sometimes using clay, and other times using blood of warriors they slaughtered.

In the Sumerian myths, she was the primordial mother goddess, and creator of the gods.

She was also called “The pure goddess”, and was associated with fresh water.

Nammu is the mother of the Anunnaki god Enki, and the Anunnaki goddess Ereshkigal, the goddess of the Kurnugi (The underworld.).

The Akkadian/Sumerian texts describe her as “The mother who gave birth to heaven, earth, and the gods of the universe, and the mother of everything.”

Enki’s plan for creating the human race:

Translation of the original Sumerian texts; Nintu and Enki plan the creation of the human race (I: 178-220); Enki, rather than Anu, is speaking at this point in time.

In these versions, Enki reveals his plan for creating the human race.

Note: Here is the original Mesopotamian text, which I have translated to English:

Enki said:

*“While Nintu the birth-goddess is present, let the birth-goddess create the offspring...
let man bear the labor-basket of the gods.”*

Enki and Nintu called the goddess and said to her:

*“You are the birth-goddess, creator of man. Create Lullu-man,
let him bear the yoke.
Let him bear the yoke,
the work of Enlil;
let man carry the labor-basket of the gods.”*

Nintu opened her mouth and said to the great gods:

“It is not properly mine to do these things.

He is the one who purifies all;

let him give me the clay,

and I will do it.”

From an Assyrian version, we learn that fourteen birth goddesses shape the clay. They make seven males and seven females and align them in pairs.

The birth goddesses were assembled; Nintu was seated. She counted the months. At the destined moment, they called it the tenth month.

She patterned the flour and laid down the brick as instructed by Enki, and the goddess-creator said:

“I have created,

my hands have done it.”

Why Man was created?

Geshtu-e is the Akkadian/Sumerian name of the Igigi god whose blood and intelligence were used by the Anunnaki Mami to create the first man.

In the beginning, before men were created, the Anunnaki, the extraterrestrial gods living on planet Earth, had to till the land and water it to grow their food.

And this was hard and extremely demanding labor.

Enlil summoned the Igigi, and asked them to do the job.

*** **

The Igigi's revolt:

In addition to cultivating and working the fields in ancient Iraq (Babylon, Sumer), Enlil assigned to the Igigi, the hard tasks of digging trenches, canals, and river beds.

And the Igigi kept on doing this hard labor for centuries, until they could not take it anymore. They threw down their tools and went en masse to Ekur, Enlil's citadel at Nippur, to protest this hardship, and to demand immediate relief.

When they reached the citadel, Enlil ordered Nusku, his doorkeeper, to keep them out of Ekur.

Nusku asked Enlil:

*“Why do you fear your sons?
Call the other gods and let them help solve this thing.”*

So Enlil summoned the gods, including Anu and Enki. Together, they rushed to help Enlil, and stood firm on the ramparts of the citadel, and spoke to the furious Igigi:

*“Why are you attacking us?
And the Igigi answered:
“The work you have assigned to us is killing us;
we can no longer bear it.”
We have stopped digging the trenches and we are declaring war.”*

Enki asked the gods for advice, and said to them:

*“Why do we blame the Igigi?
Their tasks are too hard.
Goddess Mami is with us.
Let her create beings to serve us and to do the Igigi's work.
So we can put the yoke of Enlil on these beings and let the Igigi return to heaven.”*

The Anunnaki decided to create human beings:

The gods agreed, and asked goddess Mami to create beings to do the work of the Igigi.

But Mami said:

*“It is not wise for me to do all this.
You should choose Enki instead,
because he is wise and does things right.
But if he prepares the clay needed to complete the task,
I will create these beings.”*

Enki replied:

*“If we use only clay to create new beings,
they will be like animals, without intelligence.
Instead, we must slaughter one of the gods,
to make these creatures
capable of bearing Enlil’s yoke.
We can mix his flesh and blood with the clay to create a Man.”*

The Anunnaki seized Geshtu-e, and slaughtered him:

The Anunnaki seized Geshtu-e, the Igigi god of wisdom and knowledge, and slaughtered him.

As soon as his flesh and blood were mixed with the clay, a Shabbah (Ghost) manifested, and took the shape of a human. These creatures were the first prototypes of the human race.

Mami seized the ghost, and divided him into fourteen pieces, to create seven females and seven males.

Mami presented her creatures to the Anunnaki, and said:

*“I have done everything you have asked.
I have created Man (Men and Women).
And I gave them the faculty of speaking,
so they could talk to each other and do the job.
Let each Man choose a wife.
And Ishtar will bless them
with healthy children, to fill the whole Earth*

with generations of servants.”

1-This is why and how Man was created by the Anunnaki at that time in history.

2-Humans were created to do the Igigi's hard labor in the fields, and to feed the Anunnaki.

3-And not to mine gold as erroneously claimed by famous authors in the West!!

I. Definition and introduction:

Kiriba is an Ana'kh term for the genealogy line of the descendants and/or the remnants of the Anunnaki's on Earth, in the regions of Mesopotamia, Babylonia, Sumer, Assyria, Chaldea, Phoenicia, and Turkey.

It is also a register of names in a chronological order. Kiriba links us directly to the Anunnaki, for it provides us with a lineage that retraced the existence and names of their remnants on Earth, who are to a certain degree our ancestors.

This lineage could also elucidate and explain the reason why the Anunnaki are still interested in us.

The Book of Ramadosh listed all the names and assumed functions of these individuals (Our ancestors, the earliest remnants and descendants of the Anunnaki). In addition to an elaborate list of mythological figures, the list included monarchs and leaders who played a significant role in the establishment and development of kingdoms, dynasties and civilizations in the Near and Middle East, such as Assur-Nasir Pal (Aššurnasirpal) of Assyria, Sargon, Šamši-Adad, several kings of Elam, starting with the Avan and Simash dynasties, and ending with the Babylonian and Shutrukid dynasties.

The list also includes some of the kings of Mari, like Il'Shu, and Ikun-Ishtar. And of course, several kings of Sumer.

II. From Sumer, we have:

- 1- Alulim, who ruled for 28,800 years.

- 2- Alagar, who ruled for 36,000 years.
- 3- Enmen-gal-ana, who ruled for 28,800 years.
- 4- Dumuzi, who ruled for 36,000 years.
- 5- En-sipad-zid-ana, who ruled for 28,800 years.
- 6- Ubara-Tutu, who ruled for 18,600.

III. From Babylon, we have:

The register includes some of the kings of Babylon, before the Great Flood.

- 1- Alulim, who reigned in Eridu.
- 2- Enmenlu'anna, who reigned in Badgurguru.
- 3- Sibzianna, who reigned in Larak.
- 4- Utnapishtim (Xinsuddu), who reigned in Shuruppak.
- 5- Nimrud, founder of Bab-El (The gate of God), then re-named Bab-Ilani (The Gate of Elohim), who was the first Sumerian king. After he built the Tower of Babel, the kingdom lost unity and Sumerian cities became self-ruled "State-Cities".

Note: The Sumerian states collapsed with the expansion of Semitic peoples, and the Akkadian kings took control over the lower Mesopotamia. The first Akkadian king mentioned is the same as the first Assyrian king Sharyukenu, known in history as Sargon, who was identified with the Biblical Ashur (Assur), founder of the Assyrian state.

IV. From Akkad, we have:

- 1- Sharyukenu (Sargon I)
- 2- Rimush
- 3- Manishtushu
- 4- Naramsu'in/Naram-sin
- 5- Sharkalisharri
- 6- Elulu'mesh
- 7- Dud'u
- 8- Shu'durul

V. From the kings of Isin, we have:

- Ishbi'erra, in Naplanum.
- 2- Shu'ilishu, in Ymisium.
- 3- Ishmedagan, in Zabaya.
- 4- Enlilbani, in Sineribam.

VI. From the Dynasty of Amurru, we have:

- 1- Nimrod
- 2- Sumuabum
- 3- Sumula'el
- 4- Sabium
- 5- Aplisin
- 6- Sinmuballit
- 7- Hammurabi

VII. From the Dynasty of Kassites, we have:

- 1- Gandash
- 2- Akum
- 3- Kashtiliash
- 4- Ushshi
- 5- Abirattash
- 6- Urzigurumash

Hammurabi

VIII. From the Chaldean Dynasty, we have:

- 1- Simmashshikhu
- 2- Eamukhinshumi
- 3- Kashshunadin
- 4- Eulmashshakinshumi
- 5- Ninurta'kudurrussur
- 6- Shiriqtishukamunu
- 7- Marbiti'apalussur
- 8- Nabumukinapli
- 9- Shamashmudammiq
- 10- Nabushumishkun
- 11- Mardukzakirshumi
- 12- Mardukbalatzuiqbi

IX. From Phoenicia we have:

The list is endless. The most noted ones are:

1-Adon

- 2-Hiram
- 3-Jezebel
- 4-Dido
- 5-Abi Milki
- 6-Kadmosh
- 7-Asherah
- 8-El

Chapter Three

Ramadosh Revelation

The Return of the Anunnaki

One of the most fascinating revelations of Ramadosh is the return of the Anunnaki to planet Earth.

It goes like this (Excerpt from the Book):

2022 is the year when the Anunnaki plan to come back to Earth and cleanse it from the Aliens-Grays contamination. This year has great significance if it is coded and decoded in Hebrew.

The book tells us that there are two ways of interpreting the code.

*** *** ***

1-The first interpretation:

Take the number 2022 and translate it into the Hebrew alphabet. Remember that Hebrew is read from right to left, and follow the numbers in that sequence. This gives you the word: 2022=בבאב.

2 is ב, the second letter of the Hebrew alphabet.

The 0 becomes א because: 0 = The Infinite = God = The One. The א is the first letter in the Hebrew Alphabet, namely, The One.

The word reads, phonetically, b'bab, and it means ba-Ba'ab: In the Ba'ab.

Ba'ab means: Stargate of the Anunnaki.

From this stargate, the Anunnaki spaceships enter and exit the galaxies, skies, multiple universes, parallel dimensions and outer space.

Also from this Ba'ab, a person exits our physical world to enter the dimension (Universe) of extraterrestrials.

Interpretation and meaning:

Once you enter the year 2022, you will automatically enter the Ba'ab of Liberation – but only if you are not contaminated, or if you attempt, starting right now, to cleanse yourself.

*** **

2-The second interpretation:

Add the numbers that appear in the year 2022; $2 + 0 + 2 + 2 = 6$. According to the Ulema and the “Book of Rama-Dosh”, the number 6 means: Liberation.

Interpretation and meaning:

The liberation from the contamination and control of the Grays.

The secret code of the year 2022.

In the “Book of Rama-Dosh”, the word “Carbon” was used to represent the source of life, and the first element used by the Anunnaki to genetically create the early human race. Everything is connected.

The Ulema who are the custodians of the Anunnaki’s “Book of Ramadosh” explained that the number “6” is the secret code of the year 2022.

It is a vital number because it represents the 6 directions known to mankind: North, south, east, west, down and up.

In 2022, two more directions or dimensions will be added. And the human race in 2022, will understand the nature of these 2 additional dimensions which are not very far from the physical fourth dimension we live in.

The fifth dimension could be considered as a spatial trampoline, and the sixth dimension is the destination or rendezvous of the human race with the Anunnaki.

*** **

The Number 6:

“6” as a pentagonal pyramidal number is explained in the Anunnaki’s manuscript as one of the six major extraterrestrial hot spots on earth.

The other five are:

- 1-Baalbeck,
- 2-Arwad,
- 3-Tyre,
- 4-Nippur,
- 5-Malta.

Characteristics of the Number 6:

6 is a perfect number, also a “Triangular” number.
It is the geometrical value of the word “Space” in Ana’kh, the Anunnaki language, and the “Spirit” in the Phoenician language.
In the Greek oracles is “Delta”.

This geometrical form and its numerical value are also the “Logo” of the Anunnaki, because they represent the triangle.

The triangle was shown on the uniforms of the American military personnel and scientists who work on the “Black Projects” and alien reverse engineering at secret bases, and genetic laboratories in the United States.

Many insiders and high echelon military men reported, that they have seen the “Triangle” shape insignia on numerous crashed UFOs discs stored in secret military bases in the United States.

Worth mentioning here, that the chemical element carbon has an atomic number of 6.

*** **

Does this predict or hint to the landing areas of the Anunnaki when they return to earth in 2022?

Some psychics think so.

It is an entertaining idea, but an unlikely scenario.

Importance of the 6th letter in the Phoenician alphabet: The sixth letter in the Phoenician Alphabet is “Waw”.

Once the corners of the letter “Waw” are joined in a stroke of a pen, it becomes a perfect triangle.

This was the “Unification” numerical code for the Anunnaki and early Phoenicians of Baalbeck and Tyre.

The Ulema (Seers, Sages and Men of Knowledge in Arabic) also used the Anunnaki-Phoenician letter “Waw” in their Arabic dialect. It is pronounced in the same way, and means exactly the very same thing: “With” or “With others”.

In Phoenician, “Waw” means hook.

The esoteric and spiritual meaning of the hook is “Ascension”, and “Liberation”. It was constantly chanted in the secret rituals of the Phoenician gods Adoon (Adon, Adonis, Adonai) and Melkart.

Ugarit

Ugaritic/Phoenician. Noun.

Ruins of Ugarit-Ras Shamra in Syria.

Ugarit is an ancient Phoenician city. From this city, the early Hebrews imported Yahweh, their “God”!

It was at Ugarit, that the early remnants of the Anunnaki developed the Mahrit (Mah’rit), which was originally found in Arwad.

Many Ugaritic tablets served as the primordial inspiration for the scribes who wrote the Bible. Several deities from Ugarit were retransformed and renamed as Jewish deities, and later on, Jehovah’s attributes were modeled after the characteristics and attributes of El and Baal.

Baalbeck

The Ultimate
City of the Anunnaki.
The ruins of Baalbeck.

Name of a legendary city in Lebanon.
Numerous

historians believe that the site of Baalbeck dates back 4,00 years, B.C., when the Canaanites built a temple to worship "Baal" the Semitic God of thunders and storms. In the Hellenistic ages, Baalbeck was called Heliopolis "The City Of Sun" as it is known till nowadays, identified with the Greek Sun God "Helios".

Baalbeck was mentioned in ancient Sumerian, Babylonian, Assyrian, Akkadian, Chaldean, Hittite, and Persians epics, texts, and tablets.

Baalbeck is one of Lebanon's oldest cities, and one of the most important Roman sites in the Middle East. It was the home of the most marvelous ruins and temples of the Roman Empire. Its gigantic acropolis presented one of the very unique, and biggest projects conceived in the history of world architecture. In addition, it has the largest freestone in the world: 21.5m long (Almost 65 feet) and 4.8m wide (Almost 13 feet).

Tourist from around the globe are astonished by the remaining of Baalbeck's temples that took hundred years to build.

The most famous are the following:

1-The Temple of Jupiter:

The Temple of Jupiter Heliopolitanus was never fully completed. Today, only six gigantic columns remained.

2-The Temple of Bacchus:

The Temple of Bacchus is well preserved. It is surrounded by 42 columns.

3-The Temple of Venus:

Outside the acropolis stand the circular Temple of Venus.

4-The Temple of Mercury.

According to his Eminence Estfan Doweih, the Maronite Patriarch of Lebanon: "Tradition states that the fortress of Baalbeck is the most ancient building in the world. Cain, the son of Adam, built it in the year 133 of the creation, during a fit of raving madness.

He gave it the name of his son Enoch and peopled it with giants who were punished for their iniquities by the flood."

According to ancient aliens' theorists, Baalbeck was the "original space mission center of the Anunnaki." Today, a launching pad for extraterrestrial spaceships is still visible at Baalbeck nearby the Temple of Jupiter. Later on in history, Baalbeck became a major occult and a healing center visited by many kings and emperors. Attracted by its beauty and supernatural properties, the Roman emperor Augustus made Baalbeck a Roman colony and a major oracles shrine.

In fact, the Roman emperor Trajan consulted a celebrated oracle in Baalbeck. Unfortunately, Baalbeck was totally sacked and decimated by the Muslim Arabs in 748 A.D.

In 1,400 A.D., the Turkish conqueror Tamerlane pillaged and destroyed the city, and several Roman-Phoenician-Anunnaki temples and altars.

In 1,759 A.D., a major earthquake decimated the remaining ruins and almost all what was left from the Anunnaki-Phoenician monuments.

There is one place on Earth, the Ulema consider as the ultimate "terminal" of the Anunnaki; a sort of a Ba'ab from which a person enters or exits a physical dimension. And that place is Baalbeck.

Thousands of years ago, and long before the Sumerians established their kingdom in Iraq, and interacted with the Anunnaki, and many many centuries before the human race in any region of the world learned about God or Gods, the Anunnaki landed in Baalbeck, and revealed to its inhabitants many secrets, including teleportation, psychic healings, and the divine nature of the supreme beings (Gods, creators).

Baalbeck served them as a landing and a launching post. It still exists today.

Gilgamesh, Al Arz, Baalbeck and immortality:

One of the columns
from Baalbeck

Baalbeck was the rendezvous and favorite sacred place of the kings and deities of Sumer, Babylon and Egypt, because it was the first city established by the of Sumer, Babylon and Egypt, because it was the first city established by the Anunnaki on earth.

The legendary king of Uruk, the Anunnaki king-god Gilgamesh visited Baalbeck, and worshiped there. He worshiped higher gods.

Why did he go to Baalbeck?

What did he expect to find?

Gilgamesh hoped to acquire immortality and extra supernatural powers from the gods who lived in Baalbeck. The gods welcomed Gilgamesh and told him Baalbeck is the entrance to the other world; to the primordial sphere that created Earth and the human race.

The gods of Baalbeck directed Gilgamesh to the secret celestial Ba'ab of his ancestors the Anunnaki; from that Ba'ab (Exit), Gilgamesh could reach Ashtari in a blink of an eye.

The Gods also told Gilgamesh that as soon as he enters the Ba'ab he will become immortal, but he should continue his journey to Ashtari, and Gilgamesh did.

And Gilgamesh asked the gods: "Will the Ba'ab take me directly to Ashtari, so I would reach immortality?" and the gods answered: "Eventually, but first, you must make a short stop at the spring of immortality at Al Arz (Cedar tree), a sacred region of your ancestors, the Anunnaki..."

And Gilgamesh asked again: "Where is Al Arz?"

And the gods answered:

"Not very far from here...

it is the highest and mightiest mountain in Phoenicia, where the Anunnaki your ancestors planted the cedar trees...

and on the top of the mountains

you will land for a short time where you will clean your thoughts and mind...

and you will stroll under the branches of the cedar trees...

and short after you will continue your journey to Ashtari...and immortality you shall have..."

lithon of Baalbeck.

The base of the Temple of Jupiter is called the Trilithon, and it is constructed of three 1200-ton limestone megalithic stones. Legend has it, that the temple was constructed by a fleet of giants sent by Nimrod. An ancient Arab fable tells us that the Afrit of King Solomon built the temple.

According to the ancient aliens' theorists, those immense foundation stones were teleported by the Anunnaki.

No technology exists today capable of lifting/moving this size and weight of stone. Estimated to weigh nearly 1700 tons. The dimensions of the stone are approximately 68'x14'x14'.

Gray granite stones like this one, were used by the extraterrestrial Anunnaki, to build a landing site for their spaceships in Phoenicia (Modern day Lebanon.)

Modern Baalbeck is a Shiite Muslim stronghold.

Al Arz, Lebanon

Al Arz mountains, Lebanon. The holy site of the early Anunnaki, and where Gilgamesh sought immortality.

The Cedar Forest, where Gilgamesh spent a few days imploring the Anunnaki gods, to grant him immortality.

Al Arz is a mountainous region in Lebanon (Ancient Phoenicia), where the Biblical cedar trees grow; the same trees King Hiram of Tyre used to build the Temple of Solomon, and King Tut An'k Amoon used to decorate his palaces. Also Noah's boat was built with Phoenicia's Arz trees.

Al Arz means cedar trees in Arabic and Phoenician.

It is derived from the Anunnaki's language "An'k".

The Sumerians believed that Al Arz and Baalbeck are the holy cities where immortality lives as disguised gods on planet earth. This is why Gilgamesh traveled to these two old Anunnaki-Phoenician cities.

Amrit

Amrit: Phoenician/Ugaritic. Name of an ancient Phoenician city located in Syria, built by the remnants of the Anunnaki and early Phoenicians from Tyre (Modern day Sour) and Sidon (Modern day Saida).

Amrit is one of the most puzzling, mysterious and enigmatic cities in recorded history.

Legend has it that the Crusaders, and particularly the Knights Templar order organized secret meetings on the plateau of the temple and read excerpts from the Rama-Dosh Book, especially the passages related to metal transmutation that allowed them to change iron and copper into gold.

The Melkart's Shrines at Carthage (Modern Tunis) and Amrit were decorated with Anunnaki motifs and symbols, such as the Arwad Serpent representing wisdom, knowledge and science, and the Tyrian moon crescent, representing new birth, and the Anunnaki Delta-Tyrian Triangle, representing the equilibrium of nature and man.

Arwad

Phoenician tombs on the Island of Arwad (Syria).

The Island of Arwad was an independent kingdom in the days of the Canaanites. It was created by the Phoenicians in early second millennium B.C. This small beautiful island located 5 miles from the city of Tartus in Syria, was one of the first Anunnaki's small colonies on earth.

It was mentioned in the Bible by the Prophet Ezekiel. Arwad was the headquarters of the seven wise men who came from Apsu, the sweet water, and attended God Enki. They were known to the Sumerians as Abgal, to the Akkadians as Akkallu, and to the Phoenicians as An-Khal.

The Anunnaki called them “The Ab-n’GAL.”

On the Island of Arwad, the Phoenicians created a secret society called the “Circle of the Serpent” to honor their god Melkart. The Melkart shrine/altar still stands in all its beauty and majestic architecture.

The early learned Greeks who visited Arwad studied medicine at the Phoenician-Anunnaki medical center, and when they returned home, they adopted the Phoenician sign of the serpent as the logo for their healing arts.

Byblos “Gbeil”, “Gubalai”

Gubalai: Assyrian/Chaldean. Noun. Name of the ancient city of Gbeil in Phoenicia. Byblos in Greek. Byblos (Modern day, Jbeil) is one of the world’s oldest cities.

Jubalai in Assyrian and Chaldean.

Gubla in ancient Sumerian and Akkadian.

The oldest recorded names for Jbeil is: Gubla and Gebal.

The word Gebal (Jeba, Jabal) means a mountain in Arabic.

Byblos was mentioned in Ilmu Al Donia, and the Book of Ramadosh, as one of the earliest Anunnaki’s colonies on Earth.

Ruins of the ancient city of Byblos.

Gubalai was mentioned as Gebal in Ezekiel 27: 9.

“Veteran craftsmen of Byblos were on board as shipwrights to caulk your seams. All the ships of the sea and their sailors came alongside to trade for your wares...The ancients of Gebal and the wise men thereof were in you your caulkers: all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in you to occupy your merchandise.

Archaeologists have uncovered houses of farmers, peasants and fishermen in Gbeil going back to 7,000 B.C.

Some of the homes currently occupied by the inhabitants of the region are built on the top of historical foundations and ruins dating back to the days of the early Phoenicians, remnants of the Anunnaki.

Archeologists found one-room huts with crushed limestone floors and basins, and stone idol of god El known to the Phoenicians as Baal and El. This makes Jbeil (Gbeil, later known as Byblos) the oldest city in the world.

The Anunnaki-Phoenicians and Nephilim link: The Nephilim/Anunnaki, Phoenicians and the Great Flood.

The early human race is directly linked to the Anunnaki, who were called at one time in history and in the Old Testament (Bible) “Nephilim” (Nefilim).

The Nephilim who survived the great deluge returned to Phoenicia; the Bible made reference to their return. They lived with the Phoenicians for 33 years and 33 days in Tyre, Sidon, Byblos, and Baalbeck.

According to Genesis, “the Nefilim descended in two groups on Mount Harmon (Jabal Haramoun in Phoenicia) according to Book of Jubilees.

The Scriptures tell us that the extraterrestrial gods came to Earth in two separate groups.

The first one, in the days of Jared in the 10th Jubilee, and the second group during the days of Noah, in the 25th Jubilee, about 750 years apart. These extraterrestrial gods were also called angels and messengers by the early Hebrews.

Consequently, their depiction as angels with wings was very a propos, because it represented their ability to fly at an enormous speed.

The Phoenicians who interacted with the extraterrestrial gods called them the messengers of heaven.

The number 33.33:

The number 33.33 represents the period of the Tana-wir or Tanwir, which means enlightenment.

The number 33.33 became the most important and the most secret number in Phoenician occultism, architecture, and numerology, because it refers to their place of origin, Jabal Haramoun (Mt. Hermon in Lebanon) which is located exactly at 33.33° East and 33.33° North.

This number also represents the perimeter of the landing areas of the return of the Anunnaki in the Near East and the Middle East.

The number 33 is equally important in the Masonic rite King Hiram created with the assistance of King Solomon. This number is closely related to the compass and square, which were given to the Phoenicians as a gift by the Anunnaki lords. This explains how and why the early Phoenicians excelled in building ships, navigation and land-seas maps making.

Worth mentioning here, that the Egyptian Sphinx was built some 11,000 years ago (B.C.), before the Biblical Flood by the early Phoenicians, the Nephilim and an army of Djinn created by the Anunnaki.

Jabal Haramoun in Phoenicia (Mt. Harmon) where the giant gods descended.

Jabal Haramoun (Mt. Hermon in Lebanon), where the first extraterrestrial gods landed, and short after moved to Tyre and other Phoenician cities; at the time, those cities had no manes.

Mt. Hermon is also known as Ba'al Hermon, Sion, Senir, Sirion, and Jabel Al Talj. Josephus called it Mt. Lebanon.

Its highest peak is 9230 feet.

Like the cave man, the early prophets and scribes of the ancient world saw the Anunnaki, the Nephilim and Rephaim as gods.

And Enki became Yahweh. And before Yahweh was created in the mind of Abraham, extraterrestrials and Phoenicians lived in Phoenicia, Ugarit and Arwad in Syria side by side.

The Old Testament, the Nefilim (Nephilim), and the descent of the extraterrestrials on Mt. Harmon:

The Old Testament refers to gods and sons of god(s) who descended on Earth, and interfered in the affairs of humans.

Western conception of the Nephilim, depicted as “Fallen Angels” with a physical passion for the “Beautiful Women of Man”, according to the Bible and other religious scriptures.

Western conception of the Nephilim; a race of beautiful giants who fell in love with the “Women of Man”.

Genesis 6: “Now when man began to increase on Earth and daughters were born to them, the divine beings (Elohim) saw how beautiful were the human daughters and took as their wives...It was then that the Nephilim appeared on Earth, as well as later, after the divine beings had united with human daughters to whom they bore children.”

The Christian Ethiopic versions of the Scriptures refer to the Nefilim (Sons of God) as the “Sky People”, and the Nefilim appeared in the Biblical texts as the “Fallen angels.”

The early Phoenicians were very close to the Anunnaki:

If you read the Phoenician epics of Ugarit, and Amrit, if you visit the city of Baalbeck and touch the immense and perfectly cut 1,100-1,200 tons stones (each!), if you walk around the Phoenician ruins of Saida and Sour, if you look carefully at the exquisite and delicate Phoenician bas-reliefs on the facades of the Maronite churches in Mount Lebanon and the district of Jbeil (Byblos), if you visit the Melkart altar and shrine, if you examine very carefully the Phoenician “Winged Sphinx”, 9th-8th century B.C. at Fort Shalmaneser, Nimrud (ancient Kalhu), northern Iraq, if you study the earliest Elamite scripts, known as Proto-Elamite, circa 3,000 B.C. in Suse (Susa), the capital of Elam, in south-western Persia (modern Iran), then you will realize how great Phoenicia was, and how close the Phoenicians were to the Anunnaki.

According to many authors, the early Phoenicians brought their extraterrestrial genes to Europe; this Aryan expansion began as far back as 4,600 B.C., and probably much earlier.

The Phoenicians were not of a Semitic stock as many historians have assumed in the past, but a white Aryan race, closely related to the extraterrestrial Lyrans, Nordics and the Anunnaki.

Phoenicia and its modern cities.

The archeological and forensic study of Phoenician tombs clearly revealed that they were an Aryan race entirely different from the Semites. And the early Ugaritic and Phoenician inscriptions describe their ancestors as the descendants of the heavenly messengers (Extraterrestrial gods).

The bishops of the early Eastern Church knew about the Anunnaki-Phoenician genes:

Zachariah of Mitylene (464-538) a bishop and noted historian of the early Eastern Church, who frequently corresponded with Eupraxius, made two references to the Anunnaki as the ancestors of the Phoenicians and Ashurian-Syriac.

Another bishop, by the name of Proterius, tried to destroy these letters, but fortunately two hand-written copies were made, as the tradition of this era dictated, and were saved in the vault of a scribe.

Those letters resurfaced in 1957 in a personal acquisition of Cardinal Meouchi, the patriarch of the Maronite church in Lebanon. After Maouchi's death, the files were kept in the secret vaults of Al-Kaslik Monastery and Beit Chabab Monastery in Lebanon.

A view of Beirut, capital of Lebanon (Ancient Phoenicia).

The Lebanese in modern times have lost their link to the Anunnaki-Phoenicians blood line. Their extraterrestrial genes were contaminated by foreign invasions which have decimated their country throughout the centuries, starting with the Greeks, Romans, Persians,

Arabs, and ending with the Ottomans.

Beirut, totally destroyed by the Lebanese civil war which started in 1974, and caused the death of more than 350,000 people.

Less than 1% of contemporary Lebanese are aware of Phoenicia's link to the extraterrestrial gods. The Muslim Lebanese reject the whole idea, and the Christian Lebanese don't give a damn.

Cardinal Meouchi with President Kennedy,
August 29, 1962.

The Phoenicians, Ashurians, Hyksos, are the direct descendants of the Anunnaki, and their descendants carry a rather clean genetic pool. Eusebius, the Bishop of Cæsarea in Palestine, had genealogical records of the descendants of the Anunnaki who became Phoenicians and Ashurians. At the Council of Antioch in 363 AD, Bishop Eusebius intended to bring this subject in his Theophania to the attention of the members of the Council.

But no additional information or manuscripts about what happened at the Council are available.

In the Syriac manuscripts of Zachariah of Mitylene, who frequently corresponded with Eupraxius, two references were made to the Anunnaki as the ancestors of the Ashurian-Syriac. Another bishop by the name of Proterius tried to destroy these letters.

Fortunately, two hand-written copies were made, as the tradition of this era dictated, and were saved in the vault of a scribe. Those letters resurfaced in 1957 in a personal acquisition of Cardinal Maouchi, the Patriarch of the Maronite Church in Lebanon.

After Maouchi's death, those files were kept in the secret vaults of Al-Kaslik Monastery in Lebanon. As for modern knowledge, the original language of the Anunnaki is still intact and is currently used by top American scientists and researchers who work in secret American-Alien military bases in the United States and Mexico.

In 1947, the first attempt was made by American linguists, who previously worked at the OSS (Precursor to the CIA), to decipher it. They tried to compare it with the Sumerian, Hebrew, Armenian and Phoenician Alphabet, languages which are directly derived from the Anunnaki's written language. One of the problem they faced was the deciphering of the geometrical symbols included in written Anunnaki's texts.

But in 1956, they cracked the code.

Those mathematical figures hold great secrets regarding an alien advanced technology used for peaceful and constructive purposes.

The American military intelligence and what's left from Dr. Fermi's group at Los Alamos wanted to use this alien technology for military purposes.”

Amchit

Amchit:
Phoenician/
Lebanese.

Noun
Pronounced

Amcheet. Name of an ancient Phoenician town of Jbeil (Ancient Byblos) in Lebanon. Amchit sits on the Lebanese coast and climbs gently to the lower plateau of Mount Lebanon. It is a very beautiful town known for the exquisite architecture of its ethnic and traditional homes, and the legendary hospitality of its people.

French Orientalists called Amchit paradise on earth. The French archaeologist and writer, Ernest Renan, who lived there with his sister Henriette (Buried in Amchit) mentioned this splendid town in one of his writings. He wrote: “We admit, me, my wife and my sister that Amchit is a paradise”.

Amchit is rich with archeological and historical sites; its Church of Saint Sophia is built on the ruins of a Phoenician foundation; the Church of Saint Zakhia, which goes back to the 6th century; the famous church of Lady of Saydet Naya built by the Crusaders. Unquestionably, Amchit is one of the most beautiful spots on earth.

In 1944, French archeologists working for the Vichy government discovered magnificent and rare Phoenician and Egyptian artifacts and marble fragments containing Phoenician inscriptions and the portrait of Adon (Adonis).

At the lower part of the tablet, a reference is made to god Adon (Adonis) as a celestial extraterrestrial king who traveled from Assyria to Phoenicia on a winged disk.

Amioun

Amioun, Lebanon.

Amioun: Phoenician. Noun.

The name of an old town in Lebanon.

Amioun's history goes back to the time of the Phoenicians. Amioun was mentioned as Amia in the 14th century B.C. Letters of Tel Al Amarna, written by Phoenician kings who were subjects of the pharaoh. Epistemologically, the word Amioun derived from the Aramaic word Emun, which means fortress.

In 1946, in the vicinity of the tower of St. Phocas in Amioun, engineers members of the French military topography team discovered unidentified ancient parchments, figurines, Assyrian coins, tablets, slabs, and Phoenician terracotta-clay fragments containing passages from the Phoenician story of the Creation, the Anunnaki, and a substantial deposit of minted gold.

Anfeh

The Citadel of Anfeh, built by the Crusaders.

Anfeh: Phoenician/Lebanese. Noun.

The name of an old town in Lebanon. Anfeh's history goes back to the time of the Phoenicians/Canaanites. Its ancient name is Ambi, and it was mentioned in Tell-El-Amarna letters, in the 14th century B.C., as well as in the Assyrian inscriptions of King Asr-Hadoun (681-669 B.C.)

In the 12th century, Anfeh was called Nafin by the Crusaders. Anfeh is known for its historic Citadel, which is located on a small peninsula called Raas Anfeh.

The citadel was used by the Crusaders and Knights Templar as an esoteric center, where ancient Ana'kh manuscripts and King Solomon Testament were read regularly.

On the north side of Anfeh, the Crusaders built an underground base for their secret esoteric meetings. Saint Jean de Luz was the master of ceremonies. Legend has it that Anfeh was one of the earliest Anunnaki's landing areas in the Near East. The Book of Ramadosh tells us that at Anfeh, the Anunnaki established a medical center for advanced genetic experiments. Anfeh and the Island of Arwad shared a very advanced genetic program, designed to experiment with DNA of the primitive humans who lived in the Near and the Middle East.

Tyre

Triumphal Arch, in ancient Tyre.

Phoenician City Triumphal Arch, in the ancient Tyre. It is in this very city, that Hiram created the first order of Freemasons with the collaboration of King Solomon. The Western statement claiming that Freemasonry was created in Europe is false, said Anunnaki-Ulema Naphthali ben Yacob. He added that the world's first Masonic Lodge was called "Hiram Lodge".

The admittance rules were originally established by the Anunnaki-Ulema Masters in Phoenicia.

The Ulema group or brotherhood (Not the primordial Society or Circle) was created during the time of Hiram, the Phoenician King of Tyre and King Solomon's ally. The group included astronomers, physicians, mathematicians, artists, scientists, spiritual guides, metaphysicists, philosophers, authors, and lecturers from Sumer, Babylon, Assyria, Phoenicia, Syria, Palestine, Israel, Egypt, China, Mongolia, and Greece.

Later on in history, leading figures of the Knights of St John of Malta, The Templars, The Wise Men of Arwad, and Hiram-Grand Orient Masonic Rites' members joined the Ulema group.

According to an early Anunnaki-Ulema Kira 'at, one of the major reasons for the Anunnaki to land on Earth, was the search for the blue and red Phoenician algae which they found in abundance nearby Tyre and Sidon, and not for mining gold.

The army of Alexander entering the old city of Tyre.

Phoenicia fades away:

Phoenicia faded away with the destruction of its major city Tyre on the hands of the unmerciful and vengeful Alexander of Macedonia.

Phoenicia was totally absorbed by the Greeks, and the magnificent historical Phoenician identity vanished forever. When Alexander of Macedonia invaded Asia and defeated the Persian Empire in 333 B.C., Sidon, (Saida), the Island of Arwad (Road), and Byblos (Jbeil) were absorbed by Macedonia.

Siege of Tyre by Alexander the Great.

Tyre, the most important Phoenician city resisted Alexander and refused to allow him to enter the temple of its supreme god. This infuriated Alexander. Thus, Alexander decided to destroy Tyre. However, it took him a 7-month siege in 332 B.C. to capture the city.

After its bloody defeat, Tyre was reduced to ashes, and the Phoenicians gradually lost their national identity.

The whole country became part of Alexander's Greco-Macedonian empire.

In 64 B.C., the name of Phoenicia disappeared from history, when its lands were made part of the Roman province of Syria.

Name of an ancient Phoenician town in Lebanon (55 km from Beirut) where Adon (Adonis) was killed while hunting. Afqa is known for the ruins of the temple of Aphrodite (Venus). The ancient Afqa was one of the earliest Anunnaki colonies in the Near East. King Hiram, founder of the world's first Freemasons rites worshipped there.

In 1937, a semi-official French expedition found tablets written in an unknown language (Back then), decorated with mysterious symbols and mini-illustrations.

Dr. Leroux interpreted parts of the inscriptions, and stated, “There is no doubt in my mind, these inscriptions are of an Ana’kh origin...”

Anunnaki-Ulema Bukhtiar stated that at one time in ancient history, Afqa was used by the remnants of the Anunnaki as a healing center. He added, “A small river found in Afqa contained minerals not found on Earth.

And I am wondering whether the early remnants of the Anunnaki had something to do with it, or simply, the Afqa’s small river was used a purification center for the Anunnaki’s Liquid Light or Mah’rit.”

Behistun

Also called “Bisitun”, “Beitutsun” Ram-La Kitbur.

I. Definition and introduction.

II. Etymology.

III. A place for the gods.

IV. Alexander the Great, the extraterrestrial gods, and Behistun.

I. Definition and introduction:

Pronounced Bisutun.

Name given by the Anunnaki to a little village in the center of the Zagros in Iran.

II. Etymology:

The Bisitun in Persia.
Notice the Anunnaki’s

The Persian words
Behistun
and Bisutun

derived from the Anunnaki’s word Beitutsun. In Ana’kk, the Anunnaki’s language, Beitutsun is composed of two words:

- a-Beit, which means a residence; a house; a lab.
- b-Utsun, which means an experiment; a study; a surgical operation

From the Anunnaki's word Beit, derived:

- 1-The Arabic word Beit, Bayt, or Beyt, which means a home.
- 2-The Hebrew Beit or Beth, which means a house.
- 3-The Assyrian word Bitu, which means a house, a habitat, in Western dialect.
- 4-Bitluhu, in proto-Assyrian and Eastern dialect.
- 5-The Aramaic words Bayto and Bayta, which mean a house.
- 5-The Phoenician word Bit, which means a center; a house; a gathering.
- 6-The Ugaritic word Bi't, which means a shrine; a house; an altar.

The Behistun.

translated the Behistun Inscriptions.

The Behistun Inscriptions are extremely important and revealing. They were found in Kermanshah Province, in Iran. The inscriptions were written in three cuneiform languages: Old Persian, Babylonian, and Elamite. Many characters resembled the Ana'kh alphabet. In 1835 and 1843, Sir Henry Rawlinson,

III. A place for the gods:

In Anunnaki's literature, Anunnaki Ram-La Kitbur referred to the town of Behistun as a center for the study of life-forms. Some Ulema interpret this, as a genetic lab, but there is not enough evidence to point in this direction.

Ancient Greek authors, previously mentioned, thought that the Behistun was in fact a place reserved for the gods.

Worth mentioning here, that the Anunnaki were called gods by the Akkadians, Sumerians, Assyrians and Babylonians.

They referred to them as the extraterrestrial gods or lords who descended on Earth, and taught them art, science, language, astronomy, and advanced technology.

IV. Alexander the Great, extraterrestrial gods, and Behistun:

Alexander the Great believed in astrology, the occult and the celestial gods who descended on Earth.

Following his victory over the Persians, Alexander the Great paid a visit to Behistun, to pay homage to the place of the extraterrestrial gods.

His visit is documented in the ancient writings of Diodorus, who wrote at length about inscriptions found at Behistun.

The inscriptions are composed in the three languages which are written with cuneiform signs, and were used in all official inscriptions of the Achaemenian kings.

Dilmun

Babylonian/Sumerian. Noun.

Dilmun is the Sumerian name for Bahrain, at the time it was a prosperous kingdom around 2,000 B.C.

Dilmun is mentioned in the Akkadian/Sumerian clay tablets, in the Bible, as well as in the Book of Ramadosh, and Ilmu Al Donia.

The Babylonian-Assyrian mythology mentioned Dilmun as a terrestrial base for the Anunnaki. Because Dilmun had no fresh sparkling water, the Anunnaki god, Enki ordered Utu the sun god, to fill it with fresh water brought up from the earth. Dilmun is thus turned into a divine garden.

This 5,000 year old Akkadian/Sumerian tablet tells the story of the Anunnaki god Enki and his forbidden plants on the island of Dilmun.

This tablet tells the story of Gilgamesh, King of Uruk, who visited Dilmun, and who described it in the tablet as “the land of immortality.”

Chapter Five Questions And Answers

Q: How did we get the list of the Anunnaki's landing spots?

A: From Ulema Farid Tayara and Ulema Al Bakr.

Q: Why so many areas of landing?

A: Ulema Tayara said that the Anunnaki's intention is not territorial in nature. The landing areas per se are not categorical. However, they need a "network", a "net", a "web" of locations for various purposes, since one single location would not suffice to coordinate their landing operation.

He added, "Different people with different cultural backgrounds, ethnicity, religious beliefs and social systems are bound to react differently."

Q: Why not landing in the front of the White House?

This should send a global message to the entire population of Earth?

A: To you, to me, and to world's leaders, the White House could/should be the obvious choice, if an extraterrestrial message is to be transmitted to the world.

But to the Anunnaki and/or extraterrestrial civilizations, the persona and status of a president of the United States is irrelevant, in fact, it is meaningless.

To the extraterrestrials, a president of a country or a head of state is just "another human being".

Q: We understand the importance of some landing spots because of their past affiliation with the Anunnaki, such as Eridu and Jabal Haramoon.

But Dover, London, and Oerland?

Do you have any explanation why cities like Dover, London, and Oerland were chosen as possible landing spots?

A: No. Ulema Tayara did not provide any explanation.

Q: Do we have any idea about the landing process and scope? Is it some sort of an invasion or simply an unopposed landing?

A: The Anunnaki's plan and intention are not to invade Earth. And they will be using a "Cosmic Bubble", which I have described at length and in detail in my previous books.

Q: Is it a regional Bubble or a global Bubble?

A: A global Bubble.

Q: Is it similar to the "Rapture" Bubble?

A: We have learned about the Anunnaki's Bubble two thousand years before the idea of the Christian Rapture came to exist.

Q: Since Earth is also the habitat of the intraterrestrial Greys, will the Greys oppose or counter-attack the Anunnaki?

A: They are no match to the Anunnaki.

Q: Will some of the landing spots be used as portals? Stargates?

A: Yes. Some will be used as "Ba'abs" (Stargates). And there is already a huge Ba'ab over New York City.

Q: Is there any possibility of avoiding the Bubble?

A: Yes, if the human race manages to get rid of the Greys' contamination.

Q: How can we accomplish that?

A: The United States government is working on it.

In fact, our government has already submitted a "Protocol" to the Anunnaki.

Q: If so, why our government is still covering up the whole matter?

A: For obvious reason: To avoid mass hysteria, and global panic which will shatter the fabric of our societies, economy, social beliefs, and the very essence of our existence.

- Daianutu: Akkadian/Assyrian. Noun. Judgeship.
- Dayono in ancient Assyrian means a judge; a magistrate.
- Dayono in contemporary Assyrian Western dialect.
- Dayono in Aramaic.
- Also Dayanu in Akkadian.
- Dayan in Arabic means a judge; a head of a tribunal or a council. Literally, it means the one who judges people for their deeds and actions at the end of time (Day of Judgment); in this context, it refers to Allah (God).
- Dayyan (Talmudic Judge) in Hebrew.
- Dayonutho in ancient Assyrian and contemporary Assyrian Western dialect means judgeship.
- Daianuta in contemporary Assyrian Eastern dialect.
- Din in ancient Assyrian means the law.
- Dino in ancient Hebrew.
- Dinatu in Babylonian-Assyrian means laws.
- “Dinatu attu-a in birid mati aganetu usazgu.” From the Behistun Inscriptions.
- Translated verbatim: “My laws amongst these provinces flourished.
- Dinu in Akkadian and Babylonian-Assyrian means to judge, and to rule.
- Bet diino in Aramaic means a court of law, a tribunal, and a courthouse.
- In Arabic, Beth-diin means house of religion.
- Beth-diino is composed of two words:
- a-Beth, which means a house,

- b-Diino, which means the law.

From diino derived the Hebrew and Arabic words Dayan, which means a judge, more precisely a Talmudic judge and a judge in a religious court.

Diino is Diin in Arabic, and its means religion.

In ancient Islamic literature and religious texts, Dayan refers to God (Allah) the judge who will pass judgment on dead people at the end of time. The primitive meaning of Dino was religion. In Arabic, it is Din (Religion), as well as Dayana, Diyana.

So, the primordial meaning was a religious tribunal. This is understandable, because in ancient times, all laws (Civil, social, military, penal, etc.) were based upon religious dogma and teachings.

Worth mentioning here, that there is a famous historic city in Lebanon called Beit El-Din “Bet Din”, “Beiteddin”.

At one time in history, this ancient city was the most important city in Lebanon and the siege of Emir (Prince) Bashir Chehab, the ruler of Lebanon, appointed by the Sultan of Turkey.

The Castle of Beiteddin, "House Of Faith", built by Prince Chehab is one of Lebanon's greatest treasures. The palace reflects the typical oriental architecture of the 19th century.

- Eseru: Akkadian/Assyrian. Noun. Adjective.
- Captured.
- Imprisoned.
- Held hostage.
- Assyra in contemporary Assyrian Eastern dialect.
- Asyr in Arabic (Masculine form); Asyra (Feminine form).
- Asyr in Persian (Farsi).
- Esir in Turkish.
- Asir in Urdu.
- Asira in Aramaic, and it means a prisoner.
- Asira qrawa means a prisoner of war.

ANCIENT AND MODERN ARAMAIC ASSYRIAN SYRIAC-ENGLISH DICTIONARY

Aramaic is the language spoken by Jesus Christ, the Essenes and the great Rabbis of the Talmud. A set of 5 volumes of approximately 1,200 pages. Comparative Encyclopedic Thesaurus-Lexicon of Aramaic Arabic Akkadian, Babylonian Assyrian Hebrew Sumerian Syriac.

This book is a treasure, unmatched in its linguistic, etymological and epistemological wealth and clarity. Below are examples on how the dictionary defines words, refers to the epistemological origin of words, their derivation(s) and similar words with identical meaning and pronunciation in other languages & regional dialects in Semitic languages and dead languages of the ancient world (Middle East, Near East, Canaan, and Anatolia), and where words with an historical importance and linguistic value are found in the ancient tablets, on cylinder seals, slabs and bricks, the historical & social events surrounding those words, and who used them to make memorable statements.

A Definition's Example.

The words Bab and Babylon and their relation to Babilu:

Bab: Ancient Assyrian/Babylonian. Noun. A gate.

From Bab, derived the words Babi and Babu.

(The plural is: Babani and Babati).

The word Bab was used in many Semitic and ancient Middle and Near Eastern languages.

Some civilizations incorporated the word Bab in their most important symbols and national entity's vocabularies, such as the word of Babylon, which means the gate of God.

Babylon is composed of two words:

a-Bab, which means a gate,

b-Ylon or Eli, or El, which means god.

"Zahi asbuut bab rab suunnuu ana izikipi uzakeep." From the Annals of Sardanapalus. Translated verbatim: "I crucified on crosses 700 men around their great gate "

King Esur (Assur, Ashur) said: "usa shira gimir babaani." Translated verbatim: "I put around all the gates."

And: "mihriit baabi sin." Translated verbatim: "In front of their gates." From the Annals of Sardanapalus:

"Zaabi tilai in babaati sa ersu ana zikipi lu uzaakeepi." Translated verbatim: "I impaled on crosses alive men at the gates of his city."

And from the slabs of Sennacherib: "Mihriit babaati." Translated verbatim: "Before the gates."

Calendar of Hours & Days Which Bring You Bad Luck & Good Luck: How to Positively Change your Future

What is luck?

Merriam-Webster's definition of "Luck":

a- A force that brings good fortune or adversity.

b- The events or circumstances that operate for or against an individual.

But what is that "force" that brings good fortune or adversity? And how events or circumstances "operate" for or against an individual?

Merriam-Webster does not provide an explanation.

There is a force that shapes and conditions luck; it is the force of the Maktoob, meaning what it is already written in the "Kitbu Dounia", meaning the book of our life, the book of our fate; the book of our destiny.

And how do we explain the mode of operation of events or circumstances that work for us or against us?

The mode of operation of what constitutes "Luck" is always conditioned by unseen metaphysical factors, only known to the Anunnaki Ulema and Sahiriin.

Basically, these factors include:

Factors which influence your future and luck:

- Maktoob.

The fluctuation of the "Grid of Calendar" of the good hours and bad hours in our lives: Rizmanah. The calendar of hours and days of your life which bring you good luck and bad luck.

- Some hours are positive, others negative.

Kharta-Makan, which means your zone. In other words, where you live; the location of your home, office, and other places you have lived at and/or you shall occupy in the future.

Ismu, which means your name. It is very true that your name plays a paramount role on the landscape of your luck, future, success and failures.

In summary, time, places and even your name are part of the scenario of the film of your life on the screen of your existence on Earth, and beyond. The Enlightened Masters don't believe in coincidence (s). They have told us that everything in our lives happened for a reason. There are reasons we fully understand as the consequences of our deeds, acts and decisions. And there are reasons we don't understand. Are they caused by others?

Are they dictated by fate? Can we change the results, outcome and consequences of these reasons, and alter their effect on our lives, success, happiness, and failure? Yes, we can to a certain degree. This book will show you how!

The book includes:

- * Factors which influence your future and luck
- * The influence of the Anunnaki's programming of our brain and fate: A rare lecture on luck
- * How to read Shashat; the screen of the unknown

How To Become An Effective Energy Healer And Master Of The Healing Touch

This book will show you and teach you how to become an effective and accomplished energy healer, and provide you with lessons, practical training, and step-by-step instructions on how to use the Healing Touch, find, learn, develop esoteric Energy Healing techniques which produce astonishing supernatural and paranormal results; techniques and know-how which were shrouded in secrecy for thousands of years; they are herewith introduced to the readers and the lightworkers as part of the official curriculum and training/orientation programs of the AFCPM (American Federation of Certified Psychics and Mediums). The present work deals with energy healing and not faith healing, for faith healing belongs to strong religious beliefs, angels' interaction and a multitude of factors which don't fit in the scenario of scientific and metaphysical healing, and don't relate to the contents of this book.

Thus, the study, exploration, training, and techniques as presented in this book pertain exclusively to bio-organic, mental-physical, and the extra-dimensional energy, emanated from the human body and the human mind, which can be revealed and detected in the laboratory, as well as in the immediate physical effects on the physical body, and our environment.

To become an effective energy healer, the practitioner must fully understand:

- 1-The nature of energy. In other words, what is energy? And how it works?
- 2-Sources and levels of energy.
- 3-How does energy (Bad or good) affect the mind and the body?
- 4-Techniques for animating and activating the practitioner's energy.
- 5-How does energy appear to those who can see it?
- 6-The meaning of colors of energy.
- 6- How to block negative vibes.
- 7- How to stop attracting negative people to your life.
- 8- How to discover the energy of the mind and the body
- 9- How to find energy's good days and bad days, and energy's good hours and the bad hours.
- 10- Ousoul; the universe's rules and the rhythm of the Micro Wheel and Macro Wheel.
- 11-How to reverse the flux of bad energy, bad days, and bad hours.
- 12- Mintaka Difaya: Protecting your zone.
- 13- The healing touch technique and mechanism, including the prerequisites and preparation.

The present work answers all those questions, and provides pragmatic techniques which enable the lightworker and practitioner to become an effective energy healer and master of the healing touch.

THE ESSENTIAL MAXIMILLIEN DE LAFAYETTE: The Official Anunnaki Ulema Textbook for the Teacher and the Student. In 2 Volumes

THE ESSENTIAL MAXIMILLIEN DE LAFAYETTE is a synopsis of the 200 books, the author wrote on the subjects of the Anunnaki, the afterlife, the supernatural powers of the Anunnaki Ulema, the paranormal, the occult, parallel dimensions, multiple universes, the Conduit, the Supersymmetric Mind, the Double, the Astral Body, communications with spirits and entities from the world beyond, the power of the mind, mediumship, channeling, the enlightenment, the Fourth Dimension, the Fifth Dimension, Earth energy, healing, the world outside time and space, extraterrestrials, time-travel, reading the future, and similar topics.

This is NOT a repetitious book. It was intentionally compiled from the most important concepts, theories, esoteric techniques, wisdom, Eastern philosophy, the world of the mystic seers “The Ulema”, and particularly the teaching of Maximilien de Lafayette.

This series consists of 2 massive volumes, each exceeding 700 pages (50 MB). This manual is also the Official Anunnaki Ulema Textbook for the Teacher and the Student. De Lafayette wrote more than 800 books, 200 of them are in these fields. Consequently, it is quasi-impossible for the reader to purchase all these books. The present work contains knowledge, techniques and revelations, no other author has ever discussed, simply because they emerge from the teachings of the author’s Enlightened Masters and his own philosophy. Add to the fact, that no other author or researcher has ever approached these topics, simply because they were brought to the West, for the first time in history, from the author’s own vision and perspective. You will NOT find the material of this book in any other work, and/or in any library. As a matter of fact, the material of the present work (Volumes 1 and 2) is to a certain degree in sharp contrast with what it has been said or written in these fields. No one can claim that this book was inspired by or based upon any existing published book. It is a journey to new dimensions, and analysis of the physical and mental worlds as interpreted personally by the author.

The contents include: 1. Description of the Afterlife in all its states and dimensions. 2. What do we see when we enter the afterlife zone? 3. The various states of metamorphosis of the mind-body of a deceased person in the after-life. 4. Experiences dead people encounter in the next dimension. 5. How to bring good luck to your endeavors and surmount obstacles and hardship that prevent you from succeeding in life. 6. How to use Earth energy to your advantage and block others’ bad vibes and vicious intentions that are causing you harm and damage. 7. The first stage of the afterlife during the 40 day period following death, and how to communicate with your departed loved ones and pets. 8. How the Anunnaki created us genetically 65,000 years ago. 9. The mysterious and hidden world of the Anunnaki Ulema as the author knew it and explored it. 10. Foreseeing the future and rewinding time; revisiting your childhood and past life in different dimensions. 11. How the Masters, the Mounawiriin, and the Anunnaki Ulema transpose you from the present to the future? 12. How to develop The Supersymmetric Mind. 13. Study of the influence of the Anunnaki's programming of our brain and fate. 14. The duplicate image of ourselves or reproduction of our body in other dimensions. 15.

The early human species and races created by the extraterrestrials. 16. How to learn The Anunnaki Ulema supernatural and mind power techniques. 17. Entering a parallel dimension; Is it possible to enter a parallel dimension and leave there all your troubles? YES!

18. Occult techniques and talismans to protect yourself from others. And much much more.-By Dina Vittantonio, Editor.
